COMPLAINT FOR INTERPLEADER

The plaintiff, Neuberger Berman LLC (“Neuberger Berman”), by and through its attorneys, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP, for its Complaint against the defendants, alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action for interpleader and declaratory judgment. The facts that give rise to the claims for both interpleader and declaratory judgment arise out of a series of currency exchange transactions between Neuberger Berman, on one hand, and certain of the defendants, on the other hand. The settlement date for each of these currency exchange transactions was September 30, 2008. Each of these currency exchange transactions was entered into by Neuberger Berman for the account of defendant The Fridator Trust.

2. Neuberger Berman seeks interpleader of certain of the defendants so that this Court may determine among them their respective rights to funds Neuberger Berman is obligated to pay pursuant to the currency exchange transactions. Neuberger Berman has no interest in, or claim to, such funds, but has an interest in the expeditious and efficient resolution of potential conflicting ownership claims to the funds that may lead to inconsistent determinations of liability, i.e., double liability, and additional litigation if the claims are not resolved.

3. Neuberger Berman also seeks a declaration whether, for certain currency exchange transactions, it is owed sums of money from certain defendants. A declaration from the Court will assist the parties to this lawsuit in determining their respective rights and responsibilities.

PARTIES

4. Neuberger Berman is a Delaware limited liability company.

5. Upon information and belief, defendant Brown Brothers Harriman & Company (“BBH”) is a limited partnership with a main office address of 140 Broadway, New York, NY 10005.

6. Upon information and belief, defendant Westpac Banking Corporation (“Westpac”) is a corporation organized under the laws of Australia with its principal place of business in Sydney, New South Wales, Australia.

7. Upon information and belief, defendant The Fridator Trust (“Fridator”) is organized under the laws of Manitoba, Canada and is located in Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

8. Upon information and belief, defendant HSBC Securities (USA) Inc. (“HSBC”) is a Delaware Corporation with its principal place of business in New York, New York.

9. Upon information and belief, defendant Lehman Brothers Commercial Corporation (“LBCC”) is a Delaware Corporation with its principal place of business in New York, New York.

10. Upon information and belief, defendant Lehman Brothers Inc. (“LBI”) (together with LBCC, “Lehman”) is a Delaware Corporation with its principal place of business in New York, New York.

11. On or about October 5, 2008, LBCC filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

12. On or about September 19, 2008, a proceeding was commenced against LBI under the Securities Investor Protection Act.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13. This Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C., §§ 157 and 1334, because the claim set forth herein arises under the Bankruptcy Code, or arises in or is related to the voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code filed by Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., et al. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C., §§ 157(b)(1) and (b)(2)(A).

14. Interpleader is proper pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 22(a) and Fed. R. Bankruptcy Proc. 7022, because the competing claims of Lehman and BBH, and the competing claims of Lehman and Westpac, may expose Neuberger Berman to double liability.

15. Declaratory judgment is proper pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 57 and 28 U.S.C. § 2201, because there exist actual, related controversies between and among HSBC, Lehman, Fridator, and Neuberger Berman. The controversies concern which entity is entitled to the proceeds from the currency exchange transactions described herein.

16. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C., § 1409(a) because this adversary proceeding arises in or is related to the above-captioned chapter 11 case.
